I totally agree with Mr. Ceremello. Why does it take the FPPC several years to investigate a complaint for “misused of public funds?” Look number 4 on your agenda. The complaint was filed in 2019! I know a case in Dixon, in the mid-90s, that the Solano County District Attorney could not prosecute a School Board member for the crimes he committed because the statute of limitation had expired. FPPC took so long with their investigation that when the District Attorney was notified it was too late. Let’s get busy and do our jobs. Maybe AI can help your staff.
