SUMMARY OF THE LAW

An express purpose of the Act, as set forth in Section 81002, subdivision (b), is that the activities of lobbyists should be regulated and their finances disclosed in order that improper influences will not be directed at public officials. The Act therefore establishes a lobbyist employer, lobbying firm and lobbyist reporting system designed to accomplish this purpose of disclosure.

Lobbyist Employer

“Lobbyist employer” means any person, other than a lobbying firm, who: (a) Employs one or more lobbyists for economic consideration, other than reimbursement for reasonable travel expenses, for the purpose of influencing legislative or administrative action, or (b) Contracts for the services of a lobbying firm for economic consideration, other than reimbursement for reasonable travel expense, for the purpose of influencing legislative or administrative action.” Government Code Section 82039.5.

Duty to File Lobbyist Employer Reports

The following persons are required to file the statements required by Section 86116: (a) Any lobbyist employer; and (b) Any person who directly or indirectly makes payments to influence legislative or administrative action of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more in value in any calendar quarter. Government Code Section 86115

Every person described in Section 86115 shall file periodic reports containing the following information: (a) The name, business address, and telephone number of the lobbyist employer or other person filing the report. (b) The total amount of payments to each lobbying firm. (c) The total amount of all payments to lobbyists employed by the filer. (d) A description of the specific lobbying interests of the filer. (e) A periodic report completed and verified by each lobbyist employed by a lobbyist employer pursuant to Section 86113. (f) Each activity expense of the filer. A total of all activity expenses of the filer shall be included. (g) The date, amount, and the name of the recipient of any contribution of one hundred dollars ($100) or more made by the filer to an elected state officer, a state candidate, or a committee controlled by an elected state officer or state candidate, or a committee primarily formed to support the officer or candidate. If this contribution is reported by the filer or by a committee sponsored by the filer in a campaign statement filed pursuant to Chapter 4 which is required to be filed with the Secretary of State, the filer may report only the name of the committee, and the identification number of the committee. (h) (1) Except as set forth in paragraph (2), the total of all other payments to influence legislative or administrative action including overhead expenses and all payments to employees who spend 10 percent or more of their compensated time in any one month in activities related to influencing legislative or administrative action. Government Code Section 86116

The following persons shall file the statements required by Section 86116: (a) Any lobbyist employer; and (b) Any person who directly or indirectly makes payments to influence legislative or administrative action of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more in value in any calendar quarter,

Reports required by Sections 86114 and 86116 shall be filed during the month following each calendar quarter. The period covered shall be from the first day of January of each new biennial legislative session through the last day of the calendar quarter prior to the month during which the report is filed. When total amounts are required to be reported, totals shall be stated both for the period covered by the statement and for the entire legislative session to date. Government Code Section 86117

SUMMARY OF THE FACTS

Respondent Soboba Band of Luiseno Indians (“Respondent”) is a federally recognized Indian tribe in California. Respondent has also been a lobbyist employer since 1999. As a lobbyist employer, Respondent is required to file quarterly disclosure reports of lobbyist payments and activities.

Respondent employed Strategic Solutions Advisors, a Lobbying Firm in California with a single lobbyist, Frank Molina, to lobby the California State Legislature, from January 1, 2007 through April, 2010 without filing any of its required quarterly disclosure reports.

Respondent made payments for lobbying services of a total of $200,000 for the period from January 2007 through April 2010.

COUNTS 1-14

(Failure to File Required Lobbyist Employer Reports)

Respondent Soboba Band of Luiseno Indians failed to file quarterly lobbyist employer reports for the January 1, 2007 through June 30, 2010 reporting periods, in violation of Government Code Section 86115.

CONCLUSION

This matter consists of fourteen counts of violating the Act, carrying a maximum administrative penalty of $70,000.

In determining the appropriate penalty for a particular violation of the Act, the Enforcement Division considers the typical treatment of a violation in the overall statutory scheme of the Act, with an emphasis on serving the purposes and intent of the Act. Additionally, the Enforcement Division considers the facts and circumstances of the violation in context of the factors set forth in Regulation 18361.5, subdivision (d)(1)-(6): the seriousness of the violations; the presence or lack of intent to deceive the voting public; whether the violation was deliberate, negligent, or inadvertent; whether the Respondent demonstrated good faith in consulting with Commission staff; and whether there was a pattern of violations.

For Counts 1-14, failing to file lobbyist employer disclosure statements is a serious violation of the Act as it violates one of its central purposes, that the activities of lobbyists should be regulated and their finances disclosed in order that improper influences will not be directed at public officials. The public harm inherent in these violations is that the public is deprived of important and timely information from Respondent regarding the amounts and nature of lobbying activity. The typical administrative penalty for failing to file lobbyist employer statements has been in the low range of penalties.

FACTORS IN AGGRAVATION

In this matter, Respondent failed to file lobbyist employer reports for fourteen reporting periods and failed to file until they did so as a condition of this stipulation.

Respondents also failed to disclose over $200,000 worth of lobbying payments and activity, depriving the public of information on a significant amount of lobbying activity. Additionally, Respondents had a previous history of filing lobbyist employer reports and, thus, were aware of their obligations.

FACTORS IN MITIGATION

Respondents have no history of violating the Act.

PENALTY

The facts of this case, including the aggravating and mitigating factors discussed above, justify imposition of the agreed upon penalty of Fourteen Thousand Dollars ($14,000), One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) each for Counts 1 – 14.
