STATEMENT OF RESPONDENT'S RIGHTS

The Complainant, the Fair Political Practices Commission, and Respondent, both identified by name on the front of this document, hereby agree that this Stipulation, Decision and Order will be submitted for consideration by the Commission at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

The parties agree to enter into this Stipulation to resolve all factual and legal issues raised in this matter and to reach a final disposition without the necessity of holding an administrative hearing to determine the liability of Respondent.

Respondent understands and hereby knowingly and voluntarily waives any and all procedural rights under California Government Code sections 83115.5, 11500, et seq., and 2 California Code of Regulations sections 18361.1 through 18361.9, including but not limited to the issuance and receipt of an accusation, and the right to appear personally and be represented by counsel at his or her own expense in any administrative hearing held in this matter, to confront and cross examine all witnesses testifying at the hearing, to subpoena witnesses to testify at the hearing, and to have an impartial administrative law judge present at the hearing to act as a hearing officer.

RE: FPPC Case Number 13/290; Raymond Nutting

Dear Chair Ravel and Commissioners:

I appreciate the chance to submit this additional comment letter in conjunction with the agenda item for the June 20, 2013 meeting.

I acknowledge and accept responsibility for my reporting errors on my Statements of Economic Interest (FPPC Form 700). I also want to make clear to the Commission that all omissions were unintentional – I was not aware of the requirements to disclose both the grant funds and Nutting Ranch as an investment.

I have corrected the errors, filed the amendments and paid the fine as requested, and now understand how my future forms should be completed.

Sincerely,

Ray Nutting
